

Rebecca Brabo Silva, MA, LMHC
200 First Ave. West, Ste. 400, Seattle, WA 98119
Disclosure Statement

Current Practice Information

I am located on the fourth floor of the First West Building, on the corner of 1st Ave. West and John Street. Upon arrival, please wait in the lobby and I will come out to greet you at our agreed upon meeting time. If you arrive after 6:00 pm, the downstairs doors will be locked for greater security, so I will come down and let you in.

Areas of Practice

I currently treat adults and adolescents with a variety of concerns and diagnoses in individual, couple, and group therapy. I work with clients on a variety of issues such as grief and loss, family of origin issues, trauma, mood instability, and self-esteem. Areas of specialty include women's reproductive issues and their subsequent effects on mental health.

Treatment Philosophy and Methodology

An assessment is made of each client's strengths and development; a treatment plan is composed based on the needs presented by the client. My theoretical approach stems from Person-Centered therapy, which uses the therapeutic relationship as its main point of influence. Additionally, I have an interest in psychoanalytic thought as a guide to attaining deeper meaning in relationships and life.

Ethical Considerations

I consider anything that acts in contrary to the health and well being of my clients to be unethical and will act accordingly to rectify any such situation. Should you require services which are not offered by my office, I will provide you with referrals for another clinician.

Confidentiality

Under most circumstances our sessions are completely confidential. There are some circumstances however, in which I am required by law to report information about our sessions. These circumstances include: if you are threatening bodily harm to yourself or someone else or if there is suspected child or elder abuse, or abuse of the disabled. If my records are subpoenaed, then I am required to provide them. This is rare and would only occur if you were involved in a court case. In addition, I regularly review my work with a professional psychotherapy consultant and occasionally with a professional consultation group. If and when it is necessary to consult with these individuals regarding our work together, I will make every effort to protect your anonymity. If you choose to use your insurance to cover the payment of my services, information will be released to your insurance company to process the claim.

Please Initial I understand the parameters of confidentiality.

Fees

My current fee for services is $140 per 53-minute hour. Sessions start at the appointed time and are not extended into another client's time if you arrive late.

Please Initial If you are unable to keep an appointment please cancel with at least forty-eight (48) hours notice to avoid being charged the full amount for the missed session.

My signature below indicates I have read and understand the information in this disclosure statement. It also authorizes any payment of insurance benefits to Rebecca Brabo Silva, MA, LMHC for covered services, and further authorizes release of any information necessary to process this claim. I am responsible for any co-pay, including deductible, and other amounts not covered. If I fail to pay for services, I accept that my account can be pursued by a collection agency. All fees are due at the time of service unless prior arrangements have been made.

Client Signature

Date

Rebecca Brabo Silva, MA, LMHC
200 First Ave. West, Ste. 400, Seattle, WA 98119
Disclosure Statement

Client Signature

Date